

MEET THE EXPERT

The London West Alliance is pleased to invite you to an afternoon CPD facilitated by
Barbara Bleiman and Lucy Webster

BEING CREATIVELY CRITICAL AT A-LEVEL ENGLISH

This webinar will introduce ways of developing students' critical thinking and writing through creative approaches. We will model these strategies using short texts, indicating ways in which they can be adapted for your own set texts.

Resources

- ▶ If relevant, course materials will be sent the day before the course in the email with your joining instructions. Please either print these out or have them available on screen during the session.
- ▶ After the session you will receive the PowerPoint presentation and any resources used on the course.

This session will take place on

Wednesday 9th March 2021

From 4:15 - 5:30pm

MEET THE EXPERT

The London West Alliance is pleased to invite you to an afternoon CPD facilitated by
Barbara Bleiman and Lucy Webster

Barbara Bleiman is an education consultant at EMC, co-editor of emagazine and the author of What Matters in English Teaching. She writes blogs and articles about education and has written or co-written many EMC publications for the classroom, including resources on poetry, novels and language study. She takes the lead on EMC's project on group work, 'It's Good to Talk'. In 2019 she was awarded the NATE Award for Outstanding Contribution to the Teaching of English. Barbara is also the author of two novels and her collection of short stories, Kremlinology of Kisses, was published by Blue Door Press in November 2020.

Lucy Webster has been an advisory teacher at EMC since 1999. She is co-editor of emagazine, runs courses and writes and edits publications, specialising in A Level English Literature. Recent publications include Doing Close Reading (with Barbara Bleiman), Studying A Streetcar Named Desire, Studying Hamlet and Exploring Mrs Dalloway. She edited The Literature Reader and co-edited What Matters in English Teaching.
